

the 1990s, the number of people with a diagnosis of schizophrenia has increased in the United Kingdom (Meltzer 1997). The prevalence of schizophrenia in the United Kingdom is estimated to be 1.2% (Meltzer 1997).

There is a growing awareness of the need to improve the lives of people with schizophrenia. The United Kingdom has a number of government departments and agencies that are involved in the care of people with schizophrenia. The Department of Health is responsible for the overall policy and funding of the health service. The Department of Social Security is responsible for the provision of social security benefits to people with schizophrenia. The Home Office is responsible for the provision of accommodation and support for people with schizophrenia.

The National Health Service (NHS) is the main provider of health care in the United Kingdom. The NHS is responsible for the provision of mental health services to people with schizophrenia. The NHS is also responsible for the provision of social care services to people with schizophrenia. The NHS is also responsible for the provision of housing services to people with schizophrenia.

Activities

Right—Devoting their time to the making of the junior homecoming float, "A Grave Experience", Sally Adams and Becky Bona encountered many hours of hard work and yards of chicken wire.

Floats, queens symbolize homecomings

Snap, crackle, pop. Spirits were soaring. Cheering sounded throughout Brickie Bowl. It was the night before Halloween and HHS students gathered at the homecoming bonfire.

A booming pep session, the Student Council dummy contest, the long hours of working on their floats, the purple and gold mums and the silence before Paula Freville was crowned football homecoming queen boosted the team to a 34-0 victory over the Gary Roosevelt Panthers.

Basketball homecoming queen, junior Sandy Longacre, reigned over the homecoming game as the Brickies tried to scalp the Portage Indians but were defeated 62-58 in the last few minutes of the thriller.

Trying to boost the morale of the basketball players, Booster Club members decorated players' lockers with slogans, crepe paper and sponsored the basketball homecoming dance held in MacPherson Hall.

Left—"I won, I won!" Paula squeals with delight as she hugs her escort, Dale Wiggins, in joy and disbelief after being crowned homecoming queen.

Turnabouts, semi enliven school activities

"Popcorn! What a funny name for a dance! Let's see you do it, mom."

These words may not sound familiar yet, but HHS students may encounter them quite often when their children become teeny-boppers. To keep in shape for their debut, students were able to attend the semi, after game dances, turnabouts and a Valentine's dance.

Choosing their date for the annual semi-formal, girls anxiously awaited a December evening of "Stardust and Snowflakes." Punch, cookies and cakes were served by Girls' Athletic Association members, sponsors of the dance.

Stocking up on hearts, arrows and love potion number nine, Debuteens played cupid to willing students by sponsoring a Valentine's dance with the Sounds and Sensation Exhibit.

After game dances were sponsored by French Club, German Club, newspaper staff and cheerleaders.

Other dances throughout the year included Student Council's turnabout, at which couples could be married in a mock wedding ceremony.

Right—Taking her hand as they go onto the dance floor, Frank Cefali and Celeste Wiseman enjoy themselves at the GAA semi-formal.

Right—Disillusioned after being trapped by "The Girls in 509", Professor Pusy (John Sullivan) becomes fidgety as the sisters decide his fate.

Realistic scenery animates school plays

"Dear Ruth", the fall play, and "The Girls in 509", the spring play, were performed by all-school casts under the direction of Mr. Johnson, dramatics teacher.

"Dear Ruth", a story about a young girl who corresponds with a soldier overseas using her older sister's name was presented November 14 and 15 in MacPherson Hall. As the story became more involved and complicated, the older sister realized her former wedding engagement to Albert Kummer was a mistake and married the soldier.

May 1 and 2, dramatics classes enacted "The Girls in 509". The play concerned two hermit ladies found in the back suite of an old hotel when it was about to be remodeled. The two sisters isolated themselves from the outside world and vowed to remain in the hotel until a Republican was in office. The fun came when members of the Republican and Democratic parties, not to mention the newspapers, took an interest in these politically dedicated ladies.

Above left—Upon finding out that he is Ruth's second fiance, Lt. Wm. Seauright (John Anderson) sinks deep into thought as Miriam (Lois Chopin), Ruth's sister, tries to console him.

Left—Miss Frued (Sylvia Gilbertson) reassures Aunt Hettie (Dawn Mills) that she will go to work at once to help the sisters remain in the hotel.

'World of Fantasy' encompasses audience,

Performers, faculty members and the audience became enveloped in a "World of Fantasy" March 12-14 as the annual Student Council sponsored Yohannaire was presented in MacPherson Hall.

Entertaining the audience between acts with songs, skits and jokes, Chuck Dingee, Mark Holzmer and Keith Addison served as emcees.

Performing the starting number with the boys' chorus line, members of the girls' chorus line also performed "Hello Dolly" and "Dance of the Goblins". Dance number choreography was executed by Senior Audrey Cooper for the second year.

In front of a "World of Fantasy" backdrop, songs, skits, dances, piano numbers and even a hula constituted the remainder of the talent show.

Proceeds were used to help finance a $600 Student Council Scholarship and an American Field Service Fund.

Mary Siddall presided as general chairman and Mr. Matlock directed.

Right—Harmonizing to "Leaving On A Jet Plane", Sue Demmon, Cheryl Wambolt and Mary Jaross perform in one of the many musical numbers.

Right—Studying a small scale map of Hobart, Keith Addison familiarizes himself with the map of the city engineer before he undertakes the job.

Below—Girls' dean Joy Vedope verifies absences while Beth Scott and Anna Tuzinski discuss their Government Day position as vice-principal.

Seniors understudy city officials, teachers

Students suddenly began to file out of the building as the shrill sounds of fire engines could be heard in the distance. As the firemen raced into the building, students recognized the familiar faces of HHS seniors who had taken over the jobs of various city officials.

With the cooperation of Hobart's fire department, seniors were able to stage a fire at the high school on Government and Education Day, April 15.

Mayor, clerk-treasurer, policemen, firemen and other city officials forfeited a days' work to those seniors chosen by a student council committee.

Randy Lacey, Beth Ruwaldt, Keith Addison and Janet Girtman filled the positions of mayor, clerk-treasurer, city engineer and postmaster. Taking Police Chief Robert Frank's job was Charlie Boston and filling in for Fire Chief Harrigan was John Ledyard.

Acquainting first graders with their ABC's, preparing kindergartners for their naps and giving pop quizzes to reluctant students familiarized seniors with a teacher's responsibility.

Acting not only as teachers, seniors also occupied the positions of elementary and high school principals, deans and guidance counselors.

Left—Cuffs rolled up as he relaxes on a stool, Rich Ardell finds that teaching Mr. Elsho's biology class can be an exhausting but interesting job.

Brigitte finds

school spirit eminent in sports, academics

"I like to laugh, it is one of my favorite pastimes," explained Brigitte Segonnes, Hobart's 1969-70 American Field Service student.

Leaving behind her parents, her two sisters and one brother, Brigitte arrived from Cadillac, France, and was greeted by her American family, the Richard Gilbertsons, who she resided with during her stay in Hobart.

Experiencing her first snowfall, attending exciting football games and blowing out the candles at her surprise birthday party left many remembrances as Brigitte gazed back on her transition to American life.

Roper, Nelson blast opponents with 'TNT'

TNT lived up to its name and Gold Party candidates Tim Roper and Teena Nelson concluded an explosive campaign in the Mayor-Clerk election.

Tim and Teena emerged victorious in the annual three-week campaign which began with the nominating conventions and ended with the parade.

Running against Tim and Teena were Purple Party candidates Jerry Bodnar and Lydia Ksek. "Climb with the Purple Party" constituted their campaign.

Juniors and sophomores listened to speeches at their nominating conventions and then chose their candidates. Jerry and Tim won their nomination over Terry Ciszek, Gail Gronlund, Kurt Kniefel and Brad Shepley. Lydia and Teena won their nomination over Mary Kay Baron, Kathy Kopach and Elaine Booten.

Floats and cars colored with purple and gold, the marching band and girls' and boys' ROTC participated in the May 1 parade through downtown Hobart.

Couples' minds mirror 'A Time for Us'

Tick, tock, tick, tock. No one was aware of the hours that passed. The excitement of the evening, the proclaiming of king and queen and the aura of elegance that embraced the 183 couples made this a "Time for Us" at the Junior-Senior Prom.

Catering to the singular musical needs of the Prom, Johnny Nolan and his band serenaded couples from 8:00 until 11:30 p.m. Junior Barb Krulik and senior Bob Packham were crowned queen and king at the Prom, held at the Great Oaks After Four Club on April 25.

Mary Campbell and Charlie Boston, and Sandy Longacre and Randy Lacey made up the royal court.

Genesis provided music while Larry Lujack of WLS radio emceed the post-prom party at San Remo's.

Convo bestows honors to Luke, Rohrbach

Feats in all fields were cited as hard-working and deserving students received awards and recognition at the Honor Convo, Wednesday, May 13th, at 7 p.m. in the gym.

Sue Luke and Beth Rohrbach were announced valedictorian and salutatorian, respectively.

Following a glowing tribute by Mr. Harold Moody, senior Bill McClaran accepted the Principal's Award.

Involving themselves in exhaustive school projects entitled Beth Scott and Keith Addison to the honor of receiving the Activities Award.

Beth Rohrbach and Bob Alonso were presented Danforth Awards, and Nancy Uhlar was proclaimed the Tri Kappa Outstanding Girl.

Mr. Bailey, guidance counselor, announced that all of the financial aid, awards and scholarships for the Class of '70 totaled $254,095.

Graduation brings tears of joy, sorrow

Tearfully singing the Alma Mater for the last time and reminiscing the joys and sorrows of high school, 347 seniors became Hobart Senior High Alumni on Thursday, May 21, 1970.

Baccalaureate ceremonies started with the processional by the Senior High School Band and the invocation by Rev. Roger Todd on Sunday, May 17. Rev. Todd, in addition, delivered the benediction. Rev. John D. Holzman, of the Hobart Presbyterian Church, supplied the sermon.

Sue Luke, valedictorian, and Beth Rohrbach, salutatorian, encouraged fellow classmates to make the world their world and help make it a better place in which to live.

Mr. Donald Frankenhauser, assisted Mr. Harold Moody and Mr. Donald Sporro, assisted by Miss D. Thompson distributed diplomas. After getting their diplomas, seniors were handed a rose from junior class officers.

Right—Congratulating each other after commencement exercises, Kevin Fenwick and Jan Troutman exhibit their happiness and disbelief at graduating.

Mini 500, Talent Show help finance school, scholarship

Vroom! The tricycles disappear in the dust. They're nearing the finish line! And the winner is . . .

This was the scene at the Student Council sponsored Mini 500. Proceeds were used to build a school in Brazil, finance a $600 scholarship and supply part of the AFS student's expenses. Other money making projects included Talent Show; Coffee House.

Service projects included sending newsletters to servicemen, visiting convalescent homes, orphanages, rest homes and collecting food and money to fill Christmas baskets for needy families of the surrounding area. Miss Dorothy Thompson sponsored the Student Council.

AFS Club sponsors 3 parties for Brigitte

Brigitte Segonnes, American Field Service student, was welcomed by AFS club member at a beach party giving her a chance to meet HHS students.

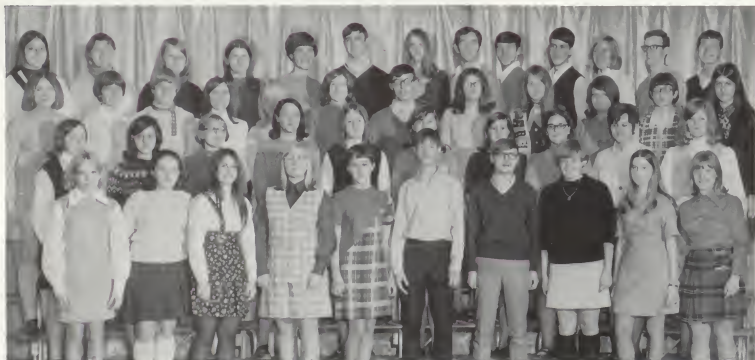

Brigitte was further welcomed by AFS members at a birthday party given in her honor. Tearfully departing the states, Brigitte took memories back to her native friends.

At meetings club members had the privilege of listening to teachers and students tell of their adventures to different countries.

Working in the snack bar and working in the coat check at basketball games provided money for some of the school expenses for AFS students.

Last summer AFS members hosted a party for foreign exchange students in the area and sponsored a bus stop for AFS students for two days.

FBLA leaders attend BSU's state business convention

Whether working as a secretary for a fast moving corporation or typing for a small business company, Future Business Leaders of America prepared members for the business world.

Points accumulated by working on committees and going to meetings were totaled to determine those delegates that would attend the FBLA Convention. Held at Ball State University the weekend of April 3, delegates participated in seminars with other Indiana high school students.

To further an exceptional girl's career in business, FBLA raised money to provide a scholarship.

Roman days relived by Latins at Lupercal

"A dead language lives on," stated Mr. Black, Latin teacher. Latin Club is living proof with a membership of approximately 42 members.

Robed in traditional Roman togas, club members observed the Lupercalia, a Roman festival in February. Members participated in a skit and feasted on food at the event, held in the school cafeteria, decorated Roman-style.

Traveling to Ball State University, Latin Clubbers attended the Indiana Junior Classical League Convention in the fourth weekend of April. Meeting Latin clubs from all over the state was the convention's main purpose.

Affiliated with the national and state chapter of the JCL, the Hobart Latin Club attended the national JCL meeting during the summer.

Latin members Gary Sowles and Mark Marlan discuss Greek mythological symbols with Tom Boswell and Dave Tipton at a Latin Club meeting after school.

Boarding the bus leaving for Germantown in Chicago are members of the German Club. The students had an opportunity to use the newly acquired language.

German Clubbers travel to 'Germantown'; first field trip

Traveling to Chicago, German Club members went to "Germantown" on their first annual Chicago field trip and also viewed the Rembrandt exhibition on display at the art museum.

Sponsoring the Merrillville after-game dance and working at a football concession stand gave the German Club money with which to give scholarships to deserving students.

German Club members contributed to the AFS Language Club Party by giving a skit and by providing traditional German food. After the language clubs presented their skits, students, who attended the party, danced.

Meeting on the first Wednesday of each month in Room 221, German Club was sponsored by Mr. Thomas Wuchner, German and French teacher, in his second year as sponsor.

Student from France tells of customs

French Club members widened their knowledge of French customs from such guest speakers as Brigitte Segonnes, AFS student from France.

Senior French Club member, Linda Scharbach presented highlights from trip to France last summer to members.

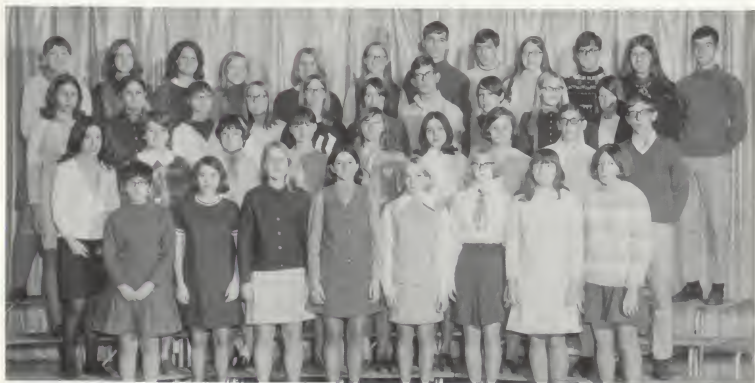

A score of 50-0 ignited the spirit of the students at the River Forest football after game dance sponsored by French Club members.

Money making projects sponsored by the club members were a car wash and a bake sale. Members also worked in the snack bar. The money from these projects went toward a scholarship.

Club members journeyed to Chicago to have dinner in a French restaurant in the Loop.

In order to experience teaching as it really is, student teacher Miss Kretz assumes leadership of two French classes daily. Listening to a different teacher's ideas betters student comprehension.

Senior French Club member Linda Scharbach talks to the French Club and tells them of her experiences in France last summer. Linda was in France for five weeks and visited Paris.

Spanish Club member visits Mexico, relates trip to club

The Frito Bandito might not be a member of Hobart High School, but the Spanish Club has their Frito Bandito, President Bob Alonso. Bob traveled to Mexico last summer through the I.U. Honors Program and described his trip to the Spanish Club almost as well as the Frito Bandito could have.

Spanish Club members traveled to Illinois, November 22 to see "Adorado

Juan, a Spanish play, presented by students from Rich Twp. H.S. East. Clubbers attended a Christmas party at the home of a fellow club member during Christmas vacation.

Traditionally spicy Spanish foods were served to members who attended the annual Spanish Club dinner, held in the school cafeteria. Spanish Club sponsor was Mr. Robert Neff. The meetings were held in the Spanish lab.

Spanish Club prepares to leave on a Chicago field trip to see students of Rich Township High School East present a Spanish play.

Flower power enabled the Debs to contribute to the Lake Shore School for Retarded Children. Members sold blossoms on April 10, Carnation Day.

Girls again swallowed their pride as they asked boys to the Debuteen's Valentine Dance. Entertained by the Sound and Sensations Exhibit, couples danced amidst hearts and cupids.

Spending weekends popping popcorn, wrapping packages and baking cookies, Debuteens prepared to send Christmas and Easter packages to Hobart youths serving in the armed forces.

FTA inducts new members, sponsors cadet teachers

"Miss Stanfield, what was spelling word number five?" Questions such as this were heard as Future Teachers of America members were given the chance to cadet teach in Hobart schools.

Highlighting the year's activities, FTA induction ushered in prospective teachers with a formal ceremony.

Helping a deserving senior pursue the teaching career, FTA raised money throughout the school year to compose a small but helpful scholarship.

Through efforts of President Janet Girtman and subordinate FTA officers, club meetings gave insight into the rewards and frustrations of teaching.

Members travel to hospital;

Home Ec sponsors dinner

Encouraging new members to join a candy-stripping program, Future Nurses of America traveled to South Bend's Memorial Hospital to investigate the hospital's school of nursing.

Club projects included keeping the first aid rooms in order. FNA members spent a day in blue jeans and sweatshirts washing cars to aid a student with a scholarship.

Tons of soap, mountains of lather and pre-fabricated homes were viewed by Home Ec. Club members who visited the Armour Dial Manufacturing Company and Mid America Homes.

Money from the sale of cookbooks, candies and cookies enabled members to pack Ditty Bags for servicemen and demonstrate their cooking skills at the Annual Parent's Dinner held at the school. Sponsor was Mrs. Beveridge.

AV promotes sound effects; scientists build holograms

Altering microphones at convos and pep sessions, assisting in repairs of broken equipment and showing movies, confirmed that the Audio Visual Club members' jobs were never ending.

A-V furnished assistance and the proper equipment for school functions and helped with town functions like Junior Miss and Miss Hobart Pageants.

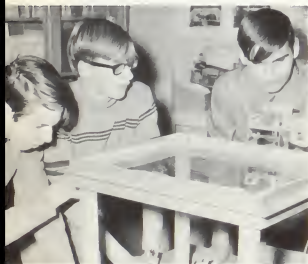

Meeting in Room 222 after school, members learned how to operate audio and visual equipment.

Group projects, speakers, films and field trips helped to promote an interest in science.

Group projects by the club members include the investigation of laser beams, construction of holograms and science of three dimensional pictures.

During the spring the Science Club members traveled to Argonne, Illinois, to view Argonne National Laboratory.

An interest in science was required to join the Science Club. The Club was sponsored by Mr. Senderak.

Earning a letter is not a matter of just being an athlete or a musician but by being a responsible person and a hard worker. Such is the case with the Librarians Club.

Script letters were given to those deserving librarians who accumulated 50 points by working on committees, constructing monthly bulletin boards and helping in the library.

Sponsoring the club's last year, Mrs. Bailey recognized the seniors at a farewell party held in the spring.

Ushers strive for order at various games

"Someone took our seats!" "Junior High can't sit in our booster block!" These were common words heard at HHS sports events and without the Ushers Club, football and basketball games would be mass confusion.

Yellow jackets at football games and black blazers at basketball games helped the crowd to recognize ushers.

Clearing the aisles, removing mischief makers and ushering people in and out of the gymnasium were only a few of their many jobs.

Under the sponsorship of Athletic Director Frank Kurth, the Ushers Club played an important part in athletic events and school functions.

Giving assistance at basketball games are ushers Randy Stevenson and Ed Crabtree.

Art students raise money, hold bazaar

Painting lobby windows with Christmas scenes and making a new Yohan are annual activities of the Art Club.

One project of the Art Club was an Art Bazaar at which all objects were made by club members. Some materials were donated by members. The objects were sold in the lobby and the money went toward the art scholarship fund.

Club members also maintained the showcase in the hall near the dean's offices and at meetings they worked on individual art projects.

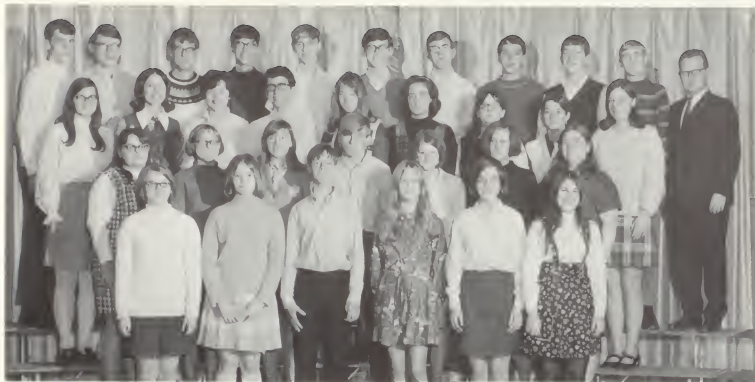

To provide time for a hobby and to foster an interest in art is the main purpose of the Art Club.

Several Art Club members observe the displays presented at the Art Bazaar.

Debaters attend workshop at University

Placing third in their January 10th home meet, Hobart ranked behind first place Munster and second place Divine Heart. Team members Jo-Anne Nordquist, Chris Kozub, Pam Trager and Dawn Mills won awards for hosting Hobart. Taking part in the meet were 13 schools.

Journeying to Purdue University to attend a Debate Workshop, six speech and debate team members visited the Lafayette campus during the weekend of Friday, December 12th.

Providing entertainment for civic organizations, the Speech and Debate team was directed this year by a new sponsor, Mr. Gary Addison.

Sophomore Mary Kay Baron interprets the play "The Crucible" at the speech tournament held in Hobart.

Madrigals entertain several organizations

Although the Madrigals did not meet as a regular class, they did practice Wednesdays after school in Room 205.

Chosen from the A Capella choir, the members of the Madrigals were guided this year by Mr. Carl Johnson.

Providing entertainment, Madrigals appeared at Hobart Federal, Masonic Lodge, the Liberty School Teacher's Luncheon, WW I Mothers, Hobart Lions, Jackson's Restaurant and Republican Women's Auxiliary.

This year's first contest for the Madrigals was held at West Side High School on Saturday, January 31.

Wall represents A Cappella at I.U.'s summer session

Executing their singing ability, A Capella performed throughout the year at various local organizations such as the YMCA, Lions Club, Masons, Republicans and at the March of Dimes Banquet in their spare time.

With all the confusion of working in the football concession stands, members earned money to clean robes, buy music and send sophomore Marilee Wall to the Summer Music Clinic held at I.U. during the summer.

A Capella aided the senior high band in promoting Christmas spirit by taking part in the Christmas Convo presented December 19.

Mr. C. Johnson, choir instructor, selected seniors Terry Abner and Nora Streit as the most valuable boy and girl of A Capella. Both Terry and Nora received an individual award.

New director sends student to workshop

Sophomore Peggy Kaiser was chosen by Mr. C. Johnson, choir director, to be the representative from the Girls Chorus to the Music Clinic at I.U. during summer vacation.

Girls Chorus supplied the money necessary for Peggy Kaiser to go to the Music Clinic by working in the football concession stands. The money left over went toward cleaning robes and purchasing music.

December 14, Girls Chorus took part in the program of the Vespers at Christmas bestowed in the gym. The members of the Girls Octet sang at meetings of local organizations.

presents skit, exceeds last year's total sales

"Doggone it doesn't fit."

"Are my pictures developed yet?"

"Three days until deadline!"

These frequent comments could be heard from Room 208 as the yearbook staff wrote copy, assigned pictures and spent many free hours working in order to meet deadlines.

Attempting to increase the sales of the 1970 MEMORIES, yearbook staff wrote and presented a western skit. Editor-in-chief Jeff Badgley played White Walt, champion and protector of the town of Memories, and sports editor Bill Rich impersonated Black Bart, the feared villain and false accuser of Memories.

Surpassing the total sales of the previous year, staffers sold about 785 yearbooks to students.

Experiencing his first year as an advisor, Mr. Fred Price introduced a fresh approach to the layouts of the opening and faculty sections.

Staff receives First Class; four attend BSU workshop

"Hey, isn't this paper different?" This was a frequent remark as the HO-HI LIFE, a biweekly, was handed out during seventh hour classes one Friday at about mid-semester.

The HHS print shop was replaced by the Home Mountain Publishing Co. of Valparaiso in order to achieve a more professional look. The grade of the paper itself was also changed as copy paper was innovated.

While staff members changed the paper's appearance, the HO-HI LIFE was rewarded a First Class rating for the first semester by the National Scholastic Press Association.

Practicing basics and learning newspaper techniques, four staffers attended a summer workshop at Ball State University last year.

Editor-in-chief of the Memories, Jeff Badgley, accepted the Walter A. Keller award for his scholastic ability in the field of journalism.

Journalists and their families, a total of 120, attended the honors banquet presented at Wilson's. Next year's staff positions were announced and awards distributed. Guest speaker was Terry O'Rourke of the Gary Post.

Scholarship, service adds to Honor Society selection

Former president of the Hobart chapter of NHS, Mr. Mark Pflughoeft appeared as the keynote speaker at the National Honor Society Induction on May 3. It was held at 3 p.m. in the school's old cafeteria.

Pizza served as the main course at a supper sponsored by the Honor Society to recognize the students with a high grade average. Professor of political science at IUNW, Mr. Cicak addressed the group.

Members served as precinct heads at the Mayor-Clerk conventions.

Based upon the high criteria of character, scholarship, leadership and service, new members were rated by teachers on a point scale.

Stage Band, Concert Band first in State

Accompanied by a parade of about 30 cars and a police escort on the way home, band members celebrated Hobart's 40th consecutive first place rating at the annual state band contest.

An engraved gold plaque was given to the band and each member received a small medal after the contest at Columbia City, Indiana, April 18.

Greeting a standing ovation with an encore, stage band members gave a convo, March 4. Stage band, under the direction of Mr. Herman Matlock, ranked in the top three at the Notre Dame Jazz Festival on March 21.

At the Honor Convo, Sue Thompson and Judy Tidwell accepted the John Phillip Sousa Award while the Arian and Jack Thomson Awards went to senior Nancy Ratliff.

GAA sponsors 'Stardust and Snowflakes'

Girls, girls and more girls. Gay, giggling and gossiping, one could find them sliding into home plate, jumping on the tramp or balancing on the beam.

As the snowflakes swirled with a trace of amour, couples were welcomed at the Girls' Athletic Association's semi-formal. Covered with "Stardust and Snowflakes" couples danced to the music of the Glass Kolon.

Volleyball, basketball, swimming, whiffle ball, gymnastics and bowling provided amusement for more than 100 members. Competitive gymnastics and track were also offered.

Expenses resulting from the costs of awards, equipment and entry fees were paid as GAA members sold Hobart sweatshirts throughout the school.

Members of the 1969-70 Booster Club cheered many games on to victory as well as sponsoring homecoming dances and selling pom poms.

Booster Club decorates lockers, sell pom

Up, up and away went the colorful helium-filled balloons at the Hobart Merrillville football game.

To boost school spirit during the football season, booster buttons were ordered and students were able to buy them at the ticket booth during lunch. The demand for booster buttons was so great that the booster club officers decided to order more buttons to sell during the basketball season.

For basketball homecoming, Booster Club members decorated the basketball players' lockers and purchased items that were needed for the crowning of the basketball homecoming queen during halftime.

Purple and gold pom poms purchased by club members, assisted the booster block at the basketball sectionals by making it colorful and noticeable.

Posting baby pictures from varsity wrestlers' mothers in the lobbies, students voted for the one wrestler to be named Mr. Baby Face. The honor went to junior Ron Hamilton.

Booster Club organized a caravan for the Hobart-Valpo football game. Students' cheers from decorated cars and buses grew louder as the caravan approached Valpo's football field. Brickies lost the game 27-0.

Entertaining at a pep session, senior girls mimic their expectations of the coming Valpo game as Tino Bono tries for a field goal.

The 1969-70 varsity cheerleaders were: Sally Adams; Sandy Longacre; Paula Freville, captain; Nance Wright and Bev Balinger.

team wheaties breakfast, decorate lockers

More than just performing at football and basketball games, planning pep sessions and making game posters, the varsity and reserve cheerleaders accomplished a great deal in boosting team morale and school spirit.

Varsity and reserve cheerleaders with the help of booster club members prepared posters to decorate varsity football and basketball players' lockers and their homes.

They also arranged for the varsity football players to have a "breakfast of champions" at the school cafeteria the morning of the Valparaiso game to help boost their morales.

Brickie gridders boast 7-3 season, rank

The Brickie gridders won their first seven games and were ranked sixth in the state polls before losing to their last three opponents. They ended the season ranked 18th by the UPI.

The Bricks scored a total of 298 points during the season and allowed 95 to be scored against them, 82 of which came in the final three games. The Brickies handed out five shutouts to Portage, River Forest, Calumet, Gary Roosevelt and Horace Mann.

The Brickies leading ground gainer was senior Pat Conley with 577 yards rushing. Rich Ardell was close behind with 558 yards. Pat also shared scoring honors with Charlie Boston both scoring 60 points. Kicking specialist Bill Rich converted 24 of 26 extra point attempts.

Season highlights included a record breaking run by Charlie Boston which covered 98 yards against Portage. The Brickies went on to win the game 32-0.

The biggest point spread between Hobart and an opponent came in the River Forest game in which the Brickies beat the Ingots 50-0.

Kurth retires after 30 years of coaching;

"I feel that 30 years of chasing boys is long enough," stated Coach Frank Kurth who has just finished his 30th year as the head cross country coach for Hobart High.

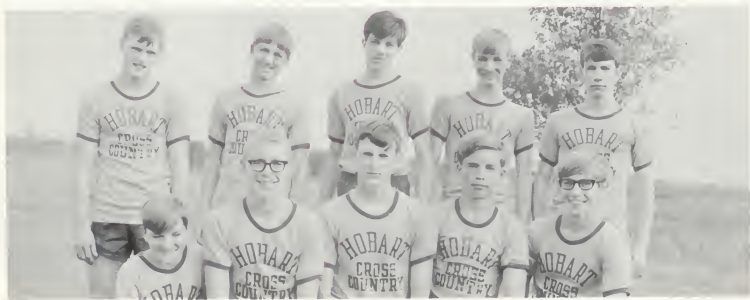

"This was my last year as varsity coach. In all these 30 years of coaching I've never had a losing team."

The Brickie harriers finished the season with a 16-0 dual meet record. The thinclads also captured the Western Alliance Championship for the 2nd consecutive year in a row with a 10-0 conference record. Tim Roper, Ed Pavelka and Mark Holzmer, Hobart's top three runners, led the squad to a 4th place finish in the 23rd IHSAA sectional. The harriers went on to a 7th place finish in the regionals but they needed at least fourth to qualify for the state meet in Indianapolis.

Hobart is looking forward to a good season again next year with six returning lettermen including the leading scorer Tim Roper. Tim led the harriers with a total of 209 points and was followed by Ed Pavelka with 188, Mark Holzmer with 164, Chuck King with 147 and Bill Woods with 99 points.

This year's netmen improved their tennis record of previous years. They finished the season with a 4-6 record. Their four victories came against River Forest 3-1, Hammond Tech 5-0, Hammond Clark 3-2 and East Chicago Washington 3-2.

Senior Charles Sufana led the netmen in individual victories with a record of 4-6. Charles was followed by Tom Puchowski with a record of 3-6 and Tim Wall with a record of 3-7.

The doubles teams were led by partners Greg Martin and Dave Hickey with a season record of 3-4. The second team partners were Dean Smith and Carl Beckner with a record of 2-4.

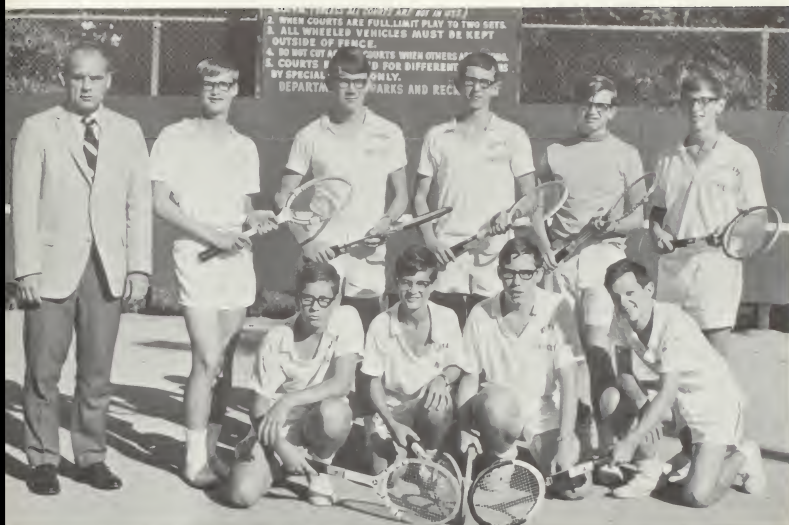

Hobart and Hammond Clark tied for fifth place in the Western Alliance with records of 3-5. The netmen placed ninth in the IHSAA sectionals with three points. The doubles team composed of Dean Smith and Carl Beckner was the only Hobart racketmen to advance to the second round.

Pope, Lacey tops in scoring, rebounding

While avenging Merrillville's and Andean's defeats over the Brickie gridders, the roundballers completed the season with five victories. Other victories were recorded against River Forest in the season opener, Lowell in the Calumet Holiday Tourney and Lake Central in regular season play.

The cagers' season began by winning two of their first three games. They beat River Forest, 57-53, then lost to East Gary, 59-63. In their lopsided victory over Merrillville, the cagers whipped their opponents by a 31 point margin which ended in a 74-43 victory for the Brickie cagers. They dropped five straight before beating Lowell, 57-50. After losing five more games in a row, the Brickies beat Andean, 88-60 and Lake Central, 54-51. They then dropped their last three games before entering into sectional play against East Chicago Washington.

The leading scorers for the Bricks were Jim Pope with a 304 point total and Randy Lacey with 257.

Grapplers, Howard, Galler all place first

Despite being plagued by injuries, Coach Al Thomas' varsity grapplers experienced the best season in their four year history at HHS.

The grapplers finished their dual meet season undefeated and took first place in the Hobart Quad Tourney as well as placing first in the Alliance Invitational. The mat men also took second in the Duneland Conference and the Hobart Invitational.

The height of the wrestling season came when the mat men won first place at the sectionals in Portage. Mark Howard and Dave Galler placed first in the sectionals and advanced to the regionals. Dave then advanced to the State meet after becoming the first to win the regionals.

At the All-Sports Banquet, team captain, Harry Beals was presented the outstanding wrestler of the year award given by Coach Thomas. Harry's overall record was 17-4 in the 155 pound weight class. He also placed second in the sectionals.

The new wrestling captain for next years squad was also announced at the banquet by Coach Thomas. Next year's captain will be Dave Galler who was elected by the rest of the grapplers. He had a record of 22-3.

The reserve grapplers have many new prospects for next years varsity wrestling squad. They supported an unblemished season record with six victories and no losses for reserve wrestling Coach Tom Kerr.

Trammel leaves team 3rd in Conference

Hobart linksmen led by Dean Donovan posted a 9-4 winning season. This marks 131 wins against 86 losses for Coach Fay Trammel who announced his coaching retirement after 12 years at the helm for Hobart sports.

A young squad consisting of three sophomores and three juniors placed 5th in the Rensselaer Invitational, 8th in the Lake Central Invitational and 3rd in the Conference. In closing out the season the team placed 7th in the sectionals.

Five returning lettermen will be back next season with a year's experience and a conference title in sight.

Jack Driemeyer headed the reserves to a winning 6-5 season, closing out a successful season for both of Hobart's golf teams.

Practicing proper head position in the golf driving net during the winter months helped Dean Donovan be number one mon for the Bricksies.

Coach Moe Rhody's diamondmen finished the 1970 season with a flurry of wins as they won six of their last eight baseball contests.

The Bricks compiled a season record of 12 wins and 8 losses. In sectional play the Bricks dropped Westville, 13-1 and defeated Boongrove in the second game, 15-3. In the final game of the sectional it came down to the familiar Hobart vs. Valpo for the championship. Valpo won the contest.

This year proved to be a year for the home team as the team won 8 of 12 home games. Some of the highlighting victories for Coach Rhody's diamondmen were the 4-3 victories over sectional winner Gary Wirt. Gary City conference winner Andrean, was the Bricks ninth victim.

Reserves end season on promising note

Coach Joe Barber's reserve sophomore ballplayers ended their season with a 3-4 record while the freshmen were 1-4 for the year. The sophomore team finished the season on a pleasant note winning their last two ball games 8-2 over Horace Mann and 5-1 over the Portage Indians. The other win came on April 23 when they beat East Gary.

A point system was set up by both varsity and reserve ball teams. Players received points for all runs they scored, hits, base on balls, etc., but lost points for being called out on third strike, picked off base, failure to see a signal or failure to sacrifice a man to base.

The team batting average was .243 while Bob Holtzman led the team in runs batting in 11. Mike Mantai led in team batting average with .600 going 3 for 5 for the year. Ron Homoky batted .416.

Gojko breaks sectional pole vault record

Being paced by Pete Gojko, for the second year in a row, the cindermen completed the season with three wins and one loss in dual meets and two wins no losses and one tie in their triangular meet record.

A set-back for the Brickies came when letterman Tim Roper sustained a torn cartilage in his knee. Tim was sidelined most of the season.

The Brickies trackmen took second in the Little Five and in the Valpo Relays, along with a fourth place in the Hammond Relays. Among the many accomplishments of the Bricks was a victory in the Duneland Conference championship at Chesterton.

Gojko was the only trackman from the Hobart squad to advance to the regionals. Pete won the pole vault by vaulting 14 1½ which set a new Gary sectional record and also a new school record which he set last year at a height of 13 10.

Mebert, Ayres pace reserve Cindermen

Rain, snow, and freezing weather did not stop the reserve track squad from conditioning themselves for the upcoming season.

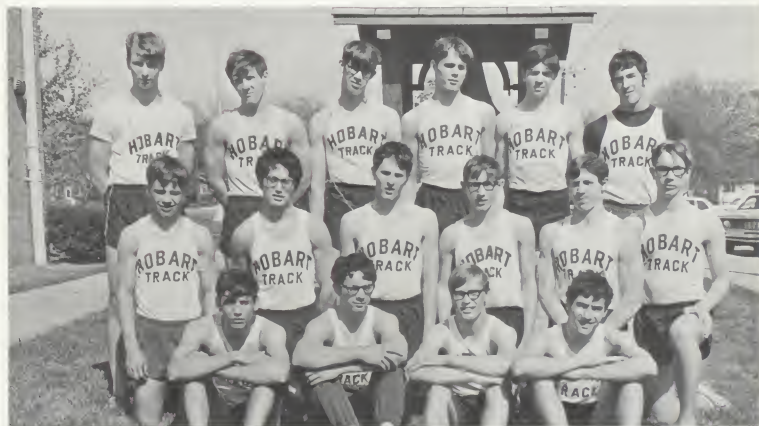

Under Coach Cape reserve cindermen practiced at Brickie Bowl in hopes of running varsity. Because of water on the track, it was not possible to have many home meets.

Hobart's reserve track team went undefeated in outdoor meets by overcoming Hammond Gavit, Andean, Horace Mann and River Forest.

Biggest upset of the season was at the first indoor meet when Culver Military Academy outscored Hobart by 18 points to make it 58 1/2-40 1/2. Despite this one defeat of the season, Hobart came back and conquered Merrillville and Lake Central in an indoor triple meet. Scores were Hobart 79, Merrillville 32 and Lake Central 29.

Capturing first place honors in the Valpo Relays, Hobart's Reserve track team ended the season with a record of 6-1.

Boys returned to the high school gymnasium from 8 a.m. to 11 a.m. Saturday mornings to join in the intramural program sponsored by varsity football coach Don Howell. Intramurals lasted for 18 weeks during the winter.

Finishing in first place out of the eight teams that played, the Beavers won the basketball tourney and completed the intramural session with an undefeated record of 7-0.

Moser, Freville, Parent place in the top

Competition in meets was at the compulsory level, using "National Compulsory Routines for Girls" set up by the United States Gymnastics Federation, and at the optional level which is more skilled and includes four difficult elements set by the "FIG Code of Points."

At the optional meet in District competition no one qualified for the state although the team placed fourth of ten schools. Individual winners were Anne Moser, fourth and Paula Freville, fifth in tumbling; and Sue Parent, fifth in vaulting.

Winners from District compulsory are not eligible for state. Winners were Phyllis and Sue Parent, second and third in tumbling.

Four girls qualify for competition at state

Hobart's GAA Track Team won its first District I meet against 21 area schools with a team total of 61.5 points and went on to be champions of the first Regional I meet ever with a total of 46 points.

Four of the team members qualified for the State meet at Hammond Gavit. Rose Schwuchow received first place with a record-breaking time in the 50-yard hurdles in both District and Regional meets. She also took third in the District and first in the Regionals in the 50-yard dash. Sue Parent took second in the 50-yard hurdles in both District and Regional competition as well as placing third in the 75-yard dash in the District and in the Regionals. The 440 relay team also qualified for state competition by placing second in District and first in Regionals.

Also placing were: Alice Schammert, third in District and fifth in Regional shot put and Anne Moser, fourth in 75-yard dash District and Regional competition respectively.

Academics

Students train now for business careers

An IBM four-channel system, used to cope with individual differences in speed building, helped students in the new shorthand laboratory, one of five business rooms added to HHS.

Two manual typing and one electric typing rooms make up part of the new addition. Students were able to type on various brands of typewriters in these rooms, including IBM, Olivetti-Underwood, Smith Corona and Royal.

Having a capacity of 30 students the business lab held many machines, including an electronic calculator.

Miss Todd, typing and office practice teacher, said that a student who takes full advantage of the courses offered at HHS should be able to go immediately to a job in an office with very little additional training.

Skits develop understanding

Knock, knock. Students file in and begin to arrange a makeshift stage of desks and chairs. Fourth year Spanish pupils entertained students in third year class with a Spanish skit.

Birthdays were also a big occasion for Spanish classes. Trying to keep a miniature sombrero on his head and waving two flags, the honored person paraded around the room as his classmates and Mr. Robert Neff serenaded him with "Felicidades a Ti."

Using the roundtable techniques, German and French students gathered in a circle to encourage fluency in their foreign languages.

Besides studying vocabulary and translation, Latin students studied myths about the gods, demigods and ancient legendary heroes. Latin was taught again this year by Mr. Black.

Above—"Formal classes are a drag," wailed Mr. Wuchner, German instructor. Using the roundtable method he established an informal class situation.

New class develops student reading skills

Sounds of silence penetrated the classroom as junior English classes listened to and interpreted the songs of Simon and Garfunkel.

Through the use of power builders and shadowscopes, students improved their reading skills in developmental reading class, a new course.

Lugging suitcases from the train depot in downtown Chicago, journalism students prepared to check in at the Palmer House November 27 for a weekend of combined learning and pleasure at the NSJA convention.

"Friends, Romans, countrymen . . ." These words resounded throughout many sophomore English classes as students studied Julius Caesar.

Blink joins Leathem in experiment

Social studies, reflecting society and mankind, traces history from the very beginning to the present.

Added this year to the department was a film projector coupled with a record player. New texts were used by all social studies.

This year English and history were taught jointly to a junior class in a two hour session. Composition and literature were emphasized in English class, taught by Mr. Leathem, while students were encouraged to use the "inquiry method" as a main source for learning in Mr. Blink's history class.

Hobart introduces girls' ROTC program

For the first time in the history of Hobart Senior High, something new was introduced to the Reserve Officer Training Corps. Girls! The sophomore girls were offered either ROTC or gym and juniors and seniors were given a chance to sign subsequently.

At the third annual ROTC Military Ball, sophomore Pam McClanahan, escorted by Paul Rossell, was crowned queen by Lt. Col. Henderson.

ROTC cadets sold candy to pay for the expenses of the Military Ball and to purchase various items of equipment for ROTC not supplied through the Army Supply channels. The cadets also performed drill exhibitions during half time at basketball games.

National Math Contest challenges ability

"When you don't have a linear term you don't have to worry about completing the square," stressed Mrs. Sark, teacher of Algebra III, IV.

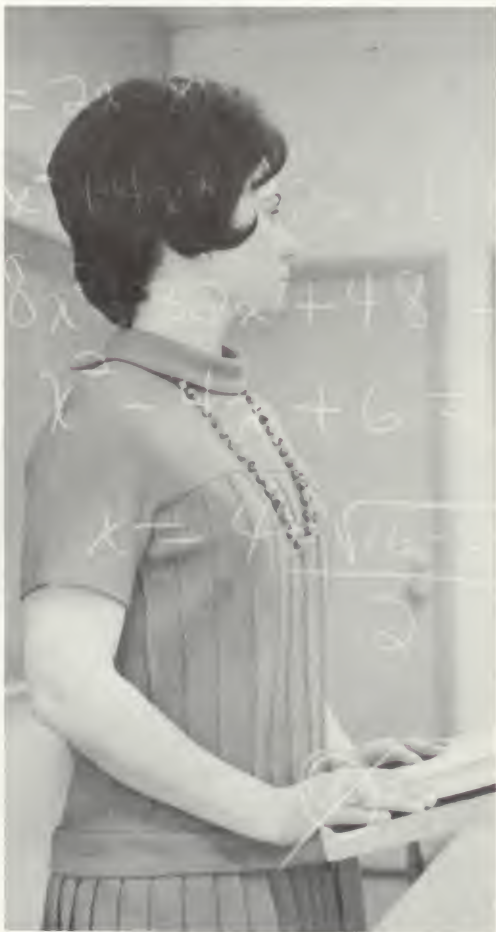

Many steps are involved in solving a math problem, so after the students have mastered the problem of solving and reasoning, students are advanced to higher levels of math.

Students learned basic fundamental concepts and structures of mathematics in Algebra I, II, III; Algebra-Trigonometry I; Geometry I, II; Senior Math and Practical Math.

In order to test their math skills, interested students with ability in mathematics were able to participate in the National Math Contest.

Right—All of Mrs. Anita Sark's algebra students knew she was always developing new equations to employ her second year students' capabilities.

Recent developments inspire many pupils

"One small step for man, one giant step for mankind." Doubtless, these words proved to be inspiring for many young and eager students in science and related courses.

Biology, the study of animals and plants, begins the study of science. From dissecting animals and watching movies, biology students learned more about the lives of certain animals.

Chemistry pupils studied the composition, properties and processes of substances. Each experiment played an important part in the classwork.

Student exploration in the laboratory helped each pupil to develop an understanding of the basic laws.

Fitness, safety major department aspects

"Go you chicken fat gol" sounded throughout the gymnasium each morning as the girls' gym classes struggled through their daily exercises.

Physical fitness tests, volleyball, basketball and gymnastics were activities shared by both boys and girls in physical education classes.

Keeping physically fit also meant knowing about the danger of alcohol, drugs and tobacco which was explained in alcohol ed. classes. Students were informed about the effects of alcohol by a member from Alcohol Anonymous.

Interstate highways, rural roads and city streets were often traveled upon by behind-the-wheel students in driver's education. Possibilities for the future include the construction of a driving range. Classroom students viewed films on driving skills, law enforcement and accidents.

Three classes added to shop department

So that the "best man for the job" would be teaching, Mr. Marcus and Mrs. Cicak carried out a teacher exchange this year among the arts and crafts classes. For example, weaving was instructed by Mrs. Cicak while pottery was taught by Mr. Marcus.

Added this year to the fine arts and shop departments were one crafts class and two drafting classes.

Shop classes offered at HHS didn't attempt to produce skilled workers, instead they tried to give a student a general education in shop skills. But during the evening special classes at HHS trained high school graduates to become skilled craftsmen.

Home economics students designed rooms using miniature furniture.

Personalities

New policies make

Solving problems, carrying out the will of the people and heading the school systems are jobs of the School Board of Trustees: Mrs. Ruth Briggs,

Mr. Harry Gormong, Mr. Donald Frankenhauer. Row 2: Mr. Charles Bigler, Mr. Kenneth Norris, Mr. Richard Black, Dr. Donald Sporre.

Secretary Mrs. Thelmo Walsh and bookkeeper Mrs. Ruth Rohrbach keep the administration functioning along with secretaries Mrs. Patricia Schoon, Mrs. Charlene Frankenberg and Mrs. Borboro Gross.

Below—Superintendent Kenneth Norris is faced with many school and administrative decisions throughout the year.

challenging demands for administration

An increase in student enrollment, the appointment of 13 new teachers and the promotions of school policies, meant challenging demands for the administration. Having meetings twice a month, the Board of Administration acts as a general agent of the State, carries out the will of the people and helps to solve problems involving the student body and teachers.

Mr. Harold Moody, principal, and Miss Dorothy Thompson, vice principal, establish educational activities and have a daily routine that varies from regrouping schedules to advising the student council on school projects.

The administration staff met daily problems and executed policies such as school dress, duration of class periods and permissiveness of school spirit functions.

Mr. E. Wise, director of pupil personnel, checks on the well being of the student body and tests the mental health of each individual student.

Mr. Charles Bigler, as director of school finances handles the year's budget, to keep it within the administration's limit.

Vice Principal Dorothy Thompson takes head to student ideas during a Student Council meeting. Miss Thompson is also the sponsor.

Above left—Announcing events of the school on the public address system is Principal Harold Moody. Mr. Moody also schedules the convos of the year.

Deal, Lopez newly appointed deans; staff increases by 13

With the appointment of two new deans the staff of Hobart High grew in size and responsibility. Thirteen new teachers were added to the staff to balance the increased enrollment. Appointed as the new deans were Mrs. Eleanor Deal and Mr. Videl Lopez.

Students seeking advice, needing help, having problems or searching for answers took their questions to the counselors. Informing college bound students on requirements for entrance, the counselors gave tests throughout the year to help students in choosing a vocation or after high school profession.

Keeping appointments, grades and records in order was the job of the secretaries. Class ranking was taken care of, along with the high school financial book and expenditures.

Hot lunches were rendered to the students and staff every school day of the year. Planning menus, keeping a budget and managing the cafeteria kept the kitchen staff busy.

The maintenance crew, under Mr. William Kneifel kept the school clean for all functions.

Mrs. Eleanor Deal, dean of girls, and Mr. Videl Lopez, dean of boys, check a student's attendance cord and call to find the cause of absence. The deans enforce the dress code and tell students of detention.

Planning menus, preparing hot lunches and keeping the kitchen in order are cooks Sally Jenks, Millie Dunkelberger, Mary Smith, Billie Ardell, Dorothy Forrester and Nina Speelman.

Left—The advice given by the counselors Mr. Bill Cape, Mrs. Rosalind Howell, Mr. Wayne Collins and Mr. Marian Bailey help students to chose the proper subjects in preparation for a career.

The maintenance crew Mr. Walter Kaiser, Mr. Charles Snow, Mr. Tom Horst and Mr. William Kneifel perform various custodial duties of the school. In the boiler room the maintenance crew controls the proper temperature of the school, while fixing broken desks and keeping HHS in serviceable appearance.

Left—Running off carbon copies, setting up appointments, organizing class rank and keeping students files in order are some of the activities performed in the guidance office by Mrs. Luella Glenn, secretary of the guidance department, Mrs. Ruth Rogers and Mrs. Francis Sillery, who handle the school financial books.

Seniors tread paths in 'Now generation'

Doubtless, some wondered as they spied two potatoes go into the new cafe on January 31. This seemed only appropriate because the event was the Senior Class Party, a masquerade whose theme was "Many Faces of Fun". Jack Westforth and Linda Yakob reigned as king and queen at the party.

Splashing soap and water over cars at a Gulf service station, seniors earned enough money April 4 to buy their gift for the school. The Class of 1970 presented HHS with plaques for the newly-named old cafeteria and lobbies. The new lobby was entitled Brickie Lobby and the old lobby was named Kurth's Korner. The old cafe was termed MacPherson Hall.

Coming to school late and leaving early one day were two of the senior privileges given during Senior Week in May. Responsibilities were also handed out to them as they filled various municipal jobs and instructed in all school levels on Government and Education Day, April 15.

Rallying around the light pole are senior class officers Mary Siddall, treasurer; Linda Yakob, secretary; President Don Rosenbaum and Vice-President Beth Ruwaldt.

Junior class chooses new prom location

Taking time out to enjoy what winter has to offer were junior class officers: Gail Granlund, vice-president; Palli Wilson, treasurer; Sally Adams, secretary; and Tim Roper, president.

Students were advised to "Back the Brickies" and purchase key chains, a junior class money-raising project. Hosting a student-faculty basketball game and washing cars also netted a profit for the class of '71.

Holding a class party, picking up the tab of the annual Junior-Senior Prom and saving for the 1971 graduation ceremonies were major uses of money by the junior class.

Peggy Neier and Paul Diaz reigned over the junior class party, "Fall-In," held November 8.

Juniors handled the arrangements for the Junior-Senior Prom, Saturday, April 25. The scene for the Prom was the Great Oaks After Four Club, while students attended the Post-Prom party at San Remo's Restaurant.

Sophomores largest class ever at HHS

Leading the largest class in the history of Hobart High School through their sophomore year were: Ann Bigler, secretary; Cindy Hamilton, president; Lydia Krsek, vice-president; and Teena Nelson, treasurer.

Starting the year off right, the class of '72 took first place honors with their float, "Brick 'Em Back," for football homecoming celebrations.

Representative for sophomores at football homecoming was Alma Griffiths. Other queen candidates for the 1969 football homecoming were junior Peggy Neier and senior Paula Freville.

Preparing for the prom next year, sophomores sold candy and also sold pins, necklaces and tie clasps with "72" on them. Sponsoring their class party, working in the snack bars and concession stands, sophomores built up their treasury.

Selecting class rings is an important sophomore class project. The committee for this project was headed by the class officers.

"To have a friend, be one," is the class motto. Maroon and navy blue are the class colors.

ZIMNEY, MARSHALL

Below—Singing "Hoppy Heart" helps Sue Demmon to compose herself after all the confusion and chaos of opening night.

New techniques, new staff members and a new advisor brought several changes through the year. Along with these changes, problems arose. But with each unique problem there came a challenge, that inspired the staffers to overcome the problem which they faced. Through determination, work and the help of the editors and fellow staff members, each and every challenge was met.

Any good organization must have able leaders and consultants. Co-editor, Peggy Lough, and I found such ability in our new advisor, Mr. Fred Price. We also wish to proclaim our thanks to Mr. Dick Kennard for all his helpful suggestions. Mr. Victor Rothschild receives our appreciation for taking the senior portraits and the organization pictures. We would like to thank the Chicago Post Tribune, UPI and NASA for the use of pictures for the opening section. We are grateful to Newsfoto Yearbooks for turning pages, that represent fun, dedication and hard work, into a complete yearbook. Above all, Peggy and I would like to voice our thanks to our staff members.
